POLITICAL POT IS BOILING HARD

Mayor Richardson Opposing Cooper, and The Fight Is On.

STATE INDIGNANT

Sentiment Changing From La Follette to the Support of True Men.

A GIANT BATTLE ON

Friday night is to be caucus night. Delegates to the county convention to be held Saturday night are to be chosen. Throughout the whole city the political leaders are putting in extra time and efforts to see that all is run according to schedule. Both Conservatives and Thoroughbreds are stretching points to carry the coming caucuses their way. From indications this morning it would appear that the caucuses will show a larger vote than ever before as every effort is being made to see that all the voters in the wards get out and vote.

While the Thoroughbreds say that their fight is not against Cooper, that the only wish to show the executive machine at Madison what their real strength in Rock county is, the fact remains that they are sparing no effort to place the name of Richardson in as much prominence as possible before the voters of the city and county. They have had several meetings behind closed doors at which all plans for the coming struggle have been carefully gone over and the seal of approval set upon them.

Not To Be Fooled

Sentiment, however, is so strongly in favor of returning the congressman that the usual methods of the executive machine will have to be decidedly improved before they will fool the voters of Rock county. Behind all the seeming indifference that the leaders of the governor's party exhibit is the fact that they wish to control the convention so that they can pass a vote of approval of the governor and his actions and whitewash all the mistakes that have been made by the administration.

Will Use Printed Tickets

Each ward in the city is to have printed tickets with the names of men on them, who are known to the community and voters. Men whose sentiments are openly expressed and who will not stand by any such methods as have been in vogue for the past two years. These tickets will be given to the voter and they will have the chance to see for whom they are voting.

This morning the plan of the Thoroughbreds was made known and from indications at present they will also have tickets in the hands of their leaders that will be more for the confusion of the voter than for his benefit.

Some of the names of the conservative republican delegates will be on them and interspersed will be others who are openly and avowedly opposed to not only Whitehead and Snover but to Congressman Cooner himself.

Under the cloak of the printed tickets these men hope to be nominated delegates to the convention where their sole purpose will be to pass a resolution of commendation of LaFollette and his machine.

State At Large

Aside from the local fight between the executive machine and the true, staunch republicans, all over the state the sentiment of the thinking men of the G. O. P. has been crystallized into the one ever dominant fact that LaFollette and his methods of doing business are too much on the dictatorship order for the thinking, working, voting, tax paying citizens of the state of Wisconsin.

They are incensed over the action of the Governor in locating the state convention in Madison, not because they have any objections to Madison, but because they feel that the city was chosen by the executive machine simply to show just how domineering their power might become.

Sentiment In Cities

From Appleton comes the word that former LaFollette sympathizers have declared themselves as disgusted with the way that things are going. West Superior falls in line with a like complaint and Oconto fairly stands on its hind legs and howls out a protest.

In Baraboo the opinion is divided. Those who have never been to Madison except on Sunday think there is plenty of room but others are disgusted.

East Troy, Neenah, Menasha, and Sparta all denounce the action as a piece of highhandedness that will bear its own fruit and bring about the defeat of the governor and his faction.

Delegates Try To Explain

Even the delegates themselves are prone to stop and try to explain why they voted as they were told when their better judgment told them it was not wise. They are trying hard to believe that the only real reason that Milwaukee was out of the question was that there was no hall there that was fit for such a big meeting and the University Gymnasium at Madison was state property and could be utilized without cost to the pockets of the state. But they fail to state that the biggest saving will be to the LaFollette campaign fund and that this is the real reason.

WISCONSIN IS STORM RIDDEN

Reports All Over the State Announce That Railway Traffic Is Suspended Owing to Recent Rains.

Heavy rains followed by the extreme heat of yesterday have done much damage to the crops throughout the state at large.

Reports from all portions of the state except in the near vicinity of Janesville bring word that crops are beaten down, fields flooded and railway bridges swept away. Prairie du Chien is in bad shape and the stores in the river city are filled with mud that was driven there by last Saturday's storm and the ones following it.

At LaCrosse the reports show that the railroads have suffered severe losses and that the inhabitants of the flats near the river have been forced to leave their homes and go onto higher ground. Near Tomah the railway bridges are down and even the churches and private homes are seriously damaged. The creek near the city rose six feet in twenty minutes sweeping all of the buildings in its path away. This is the highest water ever known in this locality.

Oshkosh streets are flooded and the heaviest rainstorm of the year swept over the city again last night.

Some of the streets are declared unpassable and small boats are being used in the lower end of the city to convey passengers about.

Lightning Plays A Part

A bolt of lightning struck the Racine Boat Co.'s shop late yesterday afternoon and tore through the roof, making a hole two feet square. While no one was injured by the lightning several were hurt in the excitement that followed. The Welsh Presbyterian church was struck by lightning and damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars.

At Baraboo four inches of water fell within two hours in the storm of Wednesday morning. The crops in the vicinity are all flooded and there are numerous washouts on the railroads.

Dam Swept Away

The dam of the city mills at Spar-ta, was carried away by the rising water and the tracks of both roads were inundated and partially ruined. A cloudburst near Norwalk has ruined crops and stopped all railway traffic.

Janesville Lucky.

Thus far Janesville has escaped the awful rain and lightning and farmers from the near vicinity report that the crops have been benefited rather than injured by the rains.

Rock River is running pretty swiftly this morning, but does not show a great increase of water and no danger is felt that it will rise above the usual depth after an ordinary storm.

Mr. Richardson's friends make no secret of the fact that he is a candidate for congress in opposition to Congressman Cooper. They say that they propose to control the convention Saturday for Richardson and pass any kind of resolutions they desire, endorsing the Governor. Conservative republicans will realize the importance of being on hand at the caucuses tomorrow night, to block the game.

HOAR ARRAIGNS PHILIPPINE WAR

Making a Speech in the Senate Against Imperialism.

IS VERY ELOQUENT

It Is Probable That Railroad Unions Will Join Union Brothers in Lock-Out.

BESMIRCHES FLAG

Washington, D. C., May 22.—Senator Hoar in one of the greatest speeches in his career this afternoon, generally arraigned the administration's policy in the Philippines and denounced the war in the archipelago. He declared that the United States had wasted six hundred millions of treasure, sacrificed nearly ten thousand American lives and had slain uncounted thousands of people in its desire for benefit.

Flag Disgraced

"You make the American flag in the eyes of the people an emblem of sacrifice in Christian churches and of burning of human dwellings and horror of the water torture. In some cases our officers have carried on warfare with a mixture of American ingenuity and Castilian cruelty."

Pinos were ready to kiss the hem of the garments of the American and welcome him as a liberator. Now he is our sullen enemy. For the Philippines you have repealed the Declaration of Independence. You have converted the Monroe doctrine into a doctrine of mere selfishness."

Fighting For Sovereignty

Proceeding he contended we were fighting for sovereignty in the Philippines and not their uplifting. He contrasted with this policy the one pursued as regards Cuba. He denounced the methods used to capture Aguinaldo. He declared Funston's act to be not only in violation of the laws of war, but laws of hospitality, which governs alike everywhere the civilized Christian or the Pagan.

Bible Similes

He said: "He went to Aguinaldo under the pretense that he was hungered and Aguinaldo fed him. Was not that act perfidious? It violated the holy rite of hospitality, which even Oriental nations hold sacred."

WILL OBSERVE FLAG DAY

G. A. R. Issues Order To Commemorate The Day.

Madison, Wis., May 22.—(Special)—Orders for the general observance of Flag Day, June 14, by the members of the G. A. R., in which citizens as well as veterans are urged to observe the day by decorating their homes and places of business with the stars and stripes, have just been issued by Commander De Groot of the Wisconsin department, through Assistant Adjutant General E. B. Gray, in pursuance of orders from Commander-in-Chief Ell Torrance of Minneapolis. Owing to the shortness of the time these orders are promulgated only through the press, instead of being sent to each post. Commanders, posts, public officials and citizens generally are urgently requested to "make the day memorable by reason of the special reverence and respect manifested by our citizens for the United States Flag."

WINS PROHIBITION CONTEST

Beloit College Representative First In State Prohibition Contest.

ARE AFTER THE PACKERS' TRUST

Madison Butchers Angry—Pedagogues Appear in Court—Making Ready for the Convention.

Madison, Wis., May 22.—(Special)—Madison butchers are now after the meat trust with the complaint that its agents are soliciting orders direct from the hotels and boarding houses and they will meet this evening to effect a protective association. They threaten a boycott unless the practice is stopped.

Pedagogues Pay Fines

Prof. Wilcox of the State University and R. B. Dudgeon, Supt. of City Schools, plead guilty in the municipal court today to violating a city ordinance by riding their wheels on the sidewalk and paid fines of $1 and costs each.

CURTAILS THE VOTER

Senator John M. Whitehead again presents to the voters of Rock County, through the Gazette, his seventh letter on the Primary Election Bill and its false and misleading statements and double purposes. His elucidation of the real facts of this much talked of bill shows clearly to the voters what the re-election of La Follette and his section of the party will mean.

The Senator is clear and concise in his statements and the weight of argument he brings to bear to show that such a measure is injurious to the personal liberties of the voter at large are conclusive.

In his last letter Mr. Whitehead told of the Stevens Bill and its fallacies. In his present resume of the situation he shows more fallacies and ones which are so apparent to the eyes of the voters themselves that they but need to have their attention called to them to see clearly the real purpose of the bill as it was presented last winter at Governor La Follette's dictation.

Janesville, Wisconsin,

AN OPERA TROUPE WITHOUT A CHORUS

Will Travel During the Summer, Giving Rustics a Taste of Exquisite Music.

Grand opera without a chorus and the minor parts in the cast is rather a new and unique departure and it has remained for Janesville genius to set the ball in motion.

An opera company of six members composed of Janesville and Fort Atkinson vocalists with the honors evenly divided between the two cities so far as numbers are concerned, is soon to start on the road and will spend the summer in the philanthropic mission of giving the small cities hamlets and villages of the surrounding country an opportunity to taste the delights of listening to real classical music.

P. M. Webster, of Chicago, the successful and popular director of amateur operas, has charge of the enterprise and besides playing one of the arts will be the musical director and manager. Rehearsals of the individual parts are now being held both on Fort Atkinson and in this city and as soon as the members have their parts learned, the company will get together and after a few final polishing rehearsals of the entire cast, will start out to win operatic laurels.

To Try Masterpieces

"The Bohemian Girl" will be the first opera presented and rapid progress is being made with the parts.

The members of the company are Mrs. S. T. Learned, Mrs. A. M. Walker and Halsey Curtis, of Fort Atkinson; J. S. Taylor, W. E. Winterton and P. M. Webster. They are cast in the opera as follows.

Gypsy Queen—Mrs. A. M. Walker. Arline—Mrs. S. T. Learned. Thaddeus—Halsey Curtis. Count Arnhelm—J. S. Taylor. Devilshoo—R. E. Winterton. Florentine—P. M. Webster.

Fitted For Place

The part of Arline is a soprano part for which Mrs. Learned's talents fit her admirably. The gypsy queen is a mezzo-soprano part, Thaddeus and Florentine are for tenor singers and Count Arnhelm and Devilshoo require baritone voices.

The first engagement will probably be played at Fort Atkinson, the home of three of the stars, and this will be followed by visits to other small cities in Southern Wisconsin.

Out For The Fun

The confessed object of the company is to enjoy unique summer outfit, one which will be especially pleasurable to them because of its fascinating flavor of professional life on the operatic stage. Opera companies seldom visit small places and the inhabitants theretofore are consequently deprived of operatic privileges. To such denied people, this company will take a rare opportunity for despite the fact that there is to be no chorus and that the cast has been cut down as small as possible, a complete production of the opera, with the story unharmed, by pruning, is promised.

Choruses Unwieldy

Choruses are unwieldy things to manage at the best. They are always jealous of each other, and of the stars, they run up hotel bills and traveling expenses fearfully and altogether they are very impracticable for an amateur company touring country towns. Therefore the company would seem to have acted wisely in deciding to cut the chorus out even if an opera without a chorus is a novelty.

PRINCESS VIROQUA, M. D.

Endorses Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound After Following Its Record For Years.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Health is the greatest boon bestowed on humanity and therefore anything that can restore lost health is a blessing. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a blessing to State and Nation. It cures her mothers and daughters and makes them well and strong.

PRINCESS VIROQUA.

Practicing Physician and Lecturer.

For fifteen years I have noted the effect of your Vegetable Compound in curing special diseases of women.

I know of nothing superior for ovarian trouble, barrenness, and it has prevented hundreds of dangerous operations where physicians claimed it was the only chance to get well. Ulceration and inflammation of the womb has been cured in two or three weeks through its use, and as I find it purely an herbal remedy, I reluctantly give it my highest endorsement. Fraternally yours, Dr. P. Viroqua, Lansing, Mich.—$5000 forfeit if above statement is not genuine.

If you are ill do not hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. for special advice; it is entirely free.

cold weather during the early part of the week held vegetation in check to some extent, the abundant moisture caused meadows, pastures and spring grains to thicken decidedly, thus assuring a better and more even stand.

The heavy rains during the week retarded farm work, but as preparations for corn are generally completed, except in a few localities, planting will not be delayed beyond the usual date.

Temperature: The early part of week was decidedly cool, with light frosts in many localities. In the central and northern counties on Wednesday and Thursday mornings.

No material damage is reported, however. The last three days of the week were warm and pleasant.

Precipitation: The rainfall for the week was somewhat less than that of the previous week, but fairly well distributed, and not excessive except in a few localities where some damage is reported to rolling lands by washing. The soil is now well saturated and more heavy rains would be detrimental at the present time.

Farm Work: Little work on the land was accomplished during the week, on account of the heavy rains, which rendered the soil too wet to work. In a few localities some corn and potatoes were planted.

With favorable weather planting will be general during the present week.

Winter Wheat And Rye: These have made very substantial progress and are reported generally in a satisfactory condition.

Spring Grains: Growth of spring grains was retarded to some extent by the cool weather during the early part of the week, but the stand is good and the plants healthy, except on low land, where an excess of moisture has been detrimental.

Meadows And Pastures: Have made excellent growth. Pastures are now generally furnishing an abundance of feed for stock.

Fruit: Apple, plum and cherry trees are in full bloom and apparently uninjured by the frosts and snow of last week. The prospect for fruit at the present time is encouraging. Strawberries are reported injured to some extent by the cold weather of last week.

Southern Section: Gay's Mill, Crawford county: Rather cool the past week; corn planting under way, but much ground too wet to plough for corn; light frost Thursday morning, but no real damage; fruit prospects seem good; grass and small grain looking fine; no doubt the hay crop is virtually safe, so far as dry weather is concerned; good rain on Saturday morning.—J. L. Stowell.

Poall, Dane county: Heavy thunderstorm Monday night washed cornfields badly on rolling ground; too wet early part of week for planting.—C. W. Derrickson.

Sandusky, Sauk county: Fine rains have given grains and grasses good start; some corn planted; apples, cherries and plums in full bloom; winter wheat good—Ed Markham.

Elm Grove, Waukesha county: Fruit blossoms apparently not injured by storm of last week; cool, moist weather thickening the grass and spring grain.—Edw. W. Robbins, W. M. WILSON, Section Director.

Annual of Whitewater Normal Writings Of High Schools

The state normal school at Whitewater devoted the May number of its official publication, The Royal Purple, to an annual High School contest edition. The feature of the number is the series of articles relative to the district declamatory contest recently held at Whitewater. A photograph and brief biography of each contestant is given with a short sketch of the school represented by the contestant.

Especially interesting is the sketch of the Janesville High school and of Miss Eureka Kimball, to whose ability and conscientious work as a student high compliment is paid. The publication is being widely circulated throughout the district and a number of copies have been sent to Janesville High school students.

RICHARDSON A CANDIDATE.

There is no longer any question about the open candidacy of Mayor Richardson for congress. His friends are working and talking openly today. They hope to control the convention, vote for Richardson, and pass resolutions endorsing the governor. The proposition is up to the republican voters. The contest is in dead earnest.

ANDREW CARNEGIE

The name of Andrew Carnegie is a household word in America, and his fame as a philanthropist is world wide. He is frequently criticised because of his great wealth, and the system of protection is also condemned by people of free trade tendencies.

The argument is sometimes used that the masses were taxed by the tariff, in order that Mr. Carnegie and other large steel and iron manufacturers might grow rich. This is a one-sided argument and is both unfair and unjust.

The United States leads the world today as a steel producer, giving employment to a large army of skilled workmen at good wages, and all because a protective tariff enabled Carnegie and that class of men, to develop the industry.

It is not at all surprising that the great steel magnate now and then makes a mistake. The enigmas that usually come to great philanthropists after death, are being pronounced on Mr. Carnegie every day, because of the novel manner in which he is disposing of his property. That his head should become turned now and then, is perfectly natural.

An instance of this kind occurred when he attempted to negotiate with the late president McKinley for the purchase of the Philippine Islands. Mr. Carnegie was possessed of the notion that if the United States could be reimbursed for the $20,000,000 indemnity paid to Spain, that the government should be satisfied to move out and give the Filipinos independence.

His proposition was to pay over this sum to the U. S. Treasury, for this purpose. The plan was never seriously considered, and was soon forgotten, but recently interest has revived and more or less discussion has resulted.

There is a small element in the republican party, with Senator Hoar at the head, who believe that the government is not honest in dealing with the far eastern islands. This element is encouraged by the democratic party, and imperialism is frequently mentioned as an issue.

Mr. Carnegie, much to the surprise of his friends, was in sympathy with this erratic measure and he was willing to back up his belief with money. He fails to appreciate the fact that the nation's relation to the Philippines, is practically the same as her relations to Cuba and that as soon as civilization and enlightenment are in control, that self government will be established.

The $20,000,000 paid to Spain for vested rights and improvements, is only a drop in the bucket, as compared to the hundreds of millions paid out by the United States to bring freedom to both Cuba and the Philippines.

The money consideration is nothing as compared with the sacrifice of life. This makes the obligation sacred and means in the last analysis, the redemption of these benighted islands.

Mr. Carnegie must realize that while money is powerful, that there are some things it will not purchase.

AN OVERGROWN BOY.

A compliment frequently paid the governor, is, "He acts like a boy." His treatment of the legislature last winter, and the tenacity with which he clung to the defunct Stevens Bill, was proof, that the estimate of the man is correct.

His latest move on the stage from which he is soon to retire, cans the climax, and entitles him to a hobby horse.

Madison is to be the convention city, so says the Governor, and his henchmen exist to do his bidding. Madison noted for its scenery and its poor hotels. Having accommodations for 800 people, will attempt to take care of a crowd 5,000 strong and all to gratify the whim of a man who poses as the Governor of the state. If there has been any question about the size of this pretended reformer, there is no trouble now in taking his measure at long range.

Why does the convention go to Madison? The men who voted for it, stultified their judgment to do the bidding of a dictator.

Does the governor believe that he can corral any more votes in Madison than in Milwaukee. If so, he is doomed to disappointment. Fair minded men who are friendly to him do not endorse this action. Voters are not school boys, subject to the dictation of a pedagog and when they line up in the Capitol park, with a ham sandwich in one hand and an opinion in the other, it is safe to say that neither will be very complimentary to the Governor.

There is only one redeeming feature about the whole thing, and that is that the session will be short. There will be no objection to the Governor retiring about midnight, to consider the error of his ways. The common herd will have no occasion to go to bed and if they had, it might bother them to find a cot. It will be a good night for brass bands and tin horns, but a poor time to sleep. If there has been any question about the hand writing on the wall, it is easy to decipher now, and with the oilcloth lights from LaFayette, Racine and other counties, that are being reflected on the screen, the verdict of popular opinion is rapidly crystallizing and the name of John M. Whitehead stands out prominently as the next governor of the state.

THE PARTY TEST

Sunday republicans papers are making much ado because the governor has reconstructed the board of dental examiners by getting rid of three of its members, two by expiration of service and one by resignation because he became indignant at the governor's supplementing a member for the reason that four years ago he supported Scofield in preference to LaFollette. Republicans will learn in time that the test of republicanism is adherence to LaFollette; that if at any time in eight years any of them opposed LaFollette, they must be ostracized. There must be harmony in the party, and discordant elements in office must be got rid of right speedily. The word has gone out from headquarters that no man is to be regarded as a republican who oppose LaFollette.—Appleton Crescent.

The Gazette published yesterday a communication from a Mr. Wood of Chicago, who thinks that he has discovered a panacea for the race problem in the north. Mr. Wood seems to be a little erratic, and it is doubtful if his plan commands much attention.

The caucuses of tomorrow night are of unusual importance. If the stalwarts control the delegation, they will continue to control future primaries. The LaFollette forces are leaving no stone unturned. Mr. Whitehead's friends should be on hand to a man.

Senator Spooner has again had responsibility thrust upon him, in outlining a policy for our trade relations with Cuba. He will be found equal to the occasion, and yet there are some people who think that he should be retired from the senate.

There is a small element in the republican party, with Senator Hoar at the head, who believe that the government is not honest in dealing with the far eastern islands. This element is encouraged by the democratic party, and imperialism is frequently mentioned as an issue.

Mr. Carnegie, much to the surprise of his friends, was in sympathy with this erratic measure and he was willing to back up his belief with money. It is obtained by refining the oil extract of the dried cocoanuts.

PRESS COMMENT.

Milwaukee Journal: Wisconsin has fifty-seven game wardens, and there is absolute proof that two of them are working.

Green Bay Gazette: Senator McGilivray has awakened to the fact that his campaign does not meet with favor from the present state administration. His struggle for nomination must, therefore, be fought out alone, and he is proceeding to do it.

Appleton Post: An advertisement which is now having a newspaper run is this: "What's the best breath perfume? Osh-kosh, By-gosh!" The allusion should add, "and if you don't believe it, go to Oshkosh and smell the breath of the first fellow you may chance to meet there!" No charge for this printing of the advertisement nor for the suggestion.

Beloit Free Press: When the American flag over Moro Castle is lowered by the United States, that Cuba should be free and independent will have been kept. While the United States make Republics, other nations destroy them.

Evening Wisconsin: Grand juries operate conscientiously, sometimes. One in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday brought in indictments for bribery against a number of city officials and an agent of an electric railway and light company.

THE RUMOR IS NOT YET SUBSTANTIATED

Train Dispatcher Question on North-western Still a Myth—Company Against Tobacco.

The reports that have been in circulation for some days about the Northwestern putting a train dispatcher and assistant superintendent in this city could not be verified from the company officials in this city.

There however, is a growing feeling among the employes that some change of this character is to be made and that Cy Brown, formerly of Madison would be sent here as assistant superintendent and head dispatcher.

Freight Business Growing

The freight business has increased so largely of late that it is almost necessary that a man should be stationed here to look after company affairs. As it is at present many of the crews are doubling the road between here and Fond du Lac.

Against Tobacco

Officials of the road have begun a campaign against the use of tobacco in any form by employes of the passenger department while on duty. In the new book of operating rules which has just gone into effect over the entire Northwestern system are several general rules of conduct. Among the latter is the following: "The use of tobacco by employees when on duty in or about passenger stations or on passenger cars, is prohibited."

Besides setting itself against the use of tobacco the management has tabooed loose pecuniary practices so that the borrowing employes will have to look out and the men who never pay their debts will soon be scarce." Rule M says.

"An assignment of wages by an employe is prohibited, and will be cause for dismissal."

This is followed by rule N, which provides that "it will be cause for dismissal that employe has twice subjected this company to the service of a garnishment order on his pay."

Bars Strong Drinks

Rules of the most stringent kind are also incorporated against the use of intoxicants or the frequenting of places where they are sold. An employe who does either is liable to get a curt note of dismissal from the general superintendent or the general manager.

Arrange for Rockford Picnic And Secure Quarters

Jesse Earle, J. J. Cunningham and J. Chase, a committee from Florence camp, No. 355, M. W. of A. went to Rockford yesterday to make arrangements for the accommodation of the Janesville delegation at the picnic to be held in that city on June 4.

They were very successful in their mission and secured the Christian Union Church which is located in the center of the city only one block from the public square as a head-quarters. The church has every facility for taking care of the crowd and has a large basement room which will be fitted up as a dining and waiting room. This morning a committee of five from Rockford consisting of Dr. E. H. Bulkley, A. B. Curtis, W. H. Sizer, Ed Ryan and W. T. Broadbroom were here to confer with members of the local lodge in regard to the number that would attend the picnic from this city.

The local lodge will hold a meeting next Monday night to make the final arrangements for the picnic. The Imperial band of twenty-five pieces will accompany the delegation and will make a parade in this city the night before.

The Rockford committee said that they expected the picnic this year would be the largest one ever held by the picnic association.

WANTS WORK, BUT UNION SAYS, NO

Old Soldier in Hard Luck, Refused Employment, Unless He Joins Painters' Union.

An old soldier, who served during the civil war in the Army of the Potomac, is in the city and the story which he has to tell is quite a pathetic one of misfortune and inability to secure work. The veteran says that he recently went to Beloit and secured work there at his trade, he being a painter. There was some trouble over the pay for the work and the difficulty has been taken into court. It will have to be adjusted legally before he will receive his wages and his interests are being looked after by J. W. Bates, who has advised him to stay in this vicinity until the case is settled.

The veteran comes to Janesville penniless and in search of work. He claims to be a member in good standing of a painters' union at his home in Peoria, Ill., but says that the Janesville painters will not allow him to go to work here unless he joins the local union at an expense of $5.

This is the only work which he knows how to do. He says he is willing and anxious to work but the union stands in his way and he is forced to stay near Beloit till he secures his pay from his former employer. Meantime he must live but how is the problem which is puzzling him.

ROYAL ARCANUM WILL CELEBRATE

Badger Council No. 223 Will Observe Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Founding of the Order.

Members of Badger Council, No. 223, Royal Arcanum, are making preparations for the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the found-ing of the order. This anniversary is to be celebrated generally throughout the country in accordance with the recommendation of the supreme council which has requested that the 23rd of June be made a red letter day.

F. H. Koehlein, B. H. Baldwin and George Harrington have been ap-pointed by the Badger council to act as a committee having entire charge of the arrangements for the local celebration. Although no de-tails have been decided upon as yet, an entertainment doubtless with a musical and literary program, will be held for members of the order and their invited friends.

In pursuance of the grand council of the state, every member will make the effort to bring in at least one new application for membership on this occasion. The order now has a membership of 260,000 in the United States and the local council has a membership of 90 prominent business men.

S. C. Bisham has been re-appointed as a member of the committee on council work and extension of the order for the grand council of Wisconsin, the announcement of his ap-pointment having just been received from Grand Regent H. P. Morse, of Wauwatosa.

"Talk! Talk! Talk!"

New Comic Trio in "The Chaperons" Sung By Walter Jones, Eva Tan-gay and Edd Redway

That excellent trio of funmakers, singers and dancers in "The Chaperons"—Walter Jones, Eva Tangay and Edd Redway—whose grotesque work furnishes a large share of the entertainment in Frank L. Perley's production of his new musical comedy success, have been given a new song entitled, "Talk! Talk! Talk!" that has scored a popular hit.

"Talk! Talk! Talk!" is a topical number with a sprightly satire ridiculing the human chatterboxes who make themselves a nuisance in public places, and the three comedians introduce a laughable burlesque business in each stanza, imitating the peculiarities of the talking friends.

The words are by George V. Hobart, the well-known humorist and newspaper writer, whose dialect sketches signed "Dinklespiel" are known the country over; and the music is by Isidore Witmark, composer of "The Chaperons." One of the stanzas runs as follows:

Refrain—Oh, they talk, talk, talk!

Not particular just what they say.

They claim that for clothes

They show, show, show, show!

In their charitable little way.

Oh, they talk, talk, talk!

When they scandalize they feel O. K.

It's a most delightful occupation surely

When they talk, talk, talk!

They have not met for days!

They look around and set their hammers out.

They have not met for days!

The hooters smile on all assembled there;

She leaves the room, perhaps to fix her hair;

And when she's gone there hammer her for fair;

MORE EXPOSE OF PRIMARY BILL

The Stevens Bill did not leave the city voter as free as it found him, nor as free as it left the town or village voter with respect to the "exercise of his sovereign of choice" in making ward nominations by direct vote. The bill placed all city officers under the ban of partisanship. To be sure, party nominations have been more common in the city than in the town or village, but as there had been no arbitrary rule making them such, it would seem unprogressive irrevocably to have fastened partisanship upon the city voter.

In this state, in the way of legislative bodies, we have, first, the State Legislature, with full legislative power, and various local bodies with limited legislative powers: the county board, the city council, the village board, the town board, and the school district board. All the members of all the legislative bodies in the state, except the major part of the State Legislature, have been made up right along of members who were nominated by a "direct vote." Legislative nominees in the largest city in the state, have been so nominated for a number of years. There are hundreds of towns, villages and city wards in Wisconsin, where the voters knew how to nominate their officers by "direct vote" long before the agitation for a primary election bill arose and where, when they voted for one candidate who was nominated by a convention, they voted for four or five others who had been nominated by "direct vote." So that, when I said in the Senate, in the course of my remarks on the Stevens Bill, that "I did not wish to be understood as taking a position against the principle of primary elections, against nominations by direct vote; that I believed in that proposition, so far as it was practicable, and in so far as machinery could be devised to put it in successful operation," I simply declared my position to be that of the average citizen of this State, who had cast his eyes about him and seen for himself the way in which candidates for offices, in the majority of cases, had been brought out. It had not been a matter of chance that those officers, who were excepted from the Stevens Bill, had been nominated by "direct vote," nor had it merely happened that the offices included within the terms of the bill had usually been filled by candidates nominated in conventions. Our citizens, acting as individuals, had often nominated their local officers without regard to parties, and, acting in and through parties by means of caucuses and conventions, had looked after the larger concerns of politics; in either case they were the same citizens, and their custom in either case had been gradually developed out of the conditions under which their communities existed or their parties had been organized. If, on the one hand, there had been demanded a better way of managing town or village nominations, or, on the other, of adopting satisfactorily the town and village practice to the party operations in a larger political field with reference to a larger number of officers, experience would doubtless have suggested the way, and it would long since have been adopted by parties to their nominating methods. The fact that such a way had not been found, and that the bill, which was introduced in the last Legislature was so cumbersome, so intricate, so arbitrary in its main provisions, so difficult to understand, and so expensive in operation, was to my mind proof conclusive that in the past the people had indeed been guided by their experience, and that their political methods had been wiser, better suited to their needs, and more practicable, than the proposed new and untried methods of the Stevens Bill.

FRATERVILLE MINERS WRITE FAREWELL NOTES

Missives Indicate That the Men Lived for Several Hours in Their Living Tomb.

Knoxville, Tenn., May 22.—The latest estimate as to loss of life in the Fraterville coal mine disaster at Coal Creek is 226, including contract miners, day laborers and boy helpers. The last find reported was that of thirteen bodies in an entry, and with these were found letters written by five men before life became extinct.

One of these letters gave the time of day it was written as 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, thus indicating that these and perhaps other entombed men lived many hours after the explosion, which occurred Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock.

The letters gave a general suggestion of the suffering that was undergone, indicating that the men were gradually being strangled to death by the foul and gaseous air that was filling the mine. One piteously read: "My God, for another breath."

The letters, in the main, were directions to families as to what disposition should be made of the writers' bodies and business affairs, and instructions as to raising the families. One unfortunate who leaves neither father, mother, brother nor sisters addressed his letter "To Everybody," and pleaded that they change their way of living.

Compromise on Cuban Tariff.

Washington, May 23.—The Republican members of the senate committee on relations with Cuba have practically agreed upon the terms of a compromise Cuban tariff reduction bill, which they are confident will be accepted by forty-five of the fifty-two Republican senators, indorsed as a party measure and passed at an early date. The base of the compromise is the bill passed by the house on April 18, but with material changes. The amount of the proposed reduction is 20 per cent, but the limit of time during which it is to operate is fixed at five years.

A. Reputation

How it was made and retained in Janesville.

A good reputation is not easily earned and it was only by hard, consistent work among our citizens that Doan's Kidney Pills won their way to the proud distinction attained in this locality. The public endorsement of scores of Janesville residents has rendered invaluable service to the community. Read what this citizen says:

Mr. Samuel Griffin, of 203 Locust St. journeyman carpenter, says: "I had a severe attack of la grippe and as a result weakness of the kidneys set in. The secretions from those organs were greatly disordered, annoyed me much at night, and I seemed to have limited control of them. After finishing the treatment my kidneys were so strengthened that I could sleep all night without being disturbed. I am better now than I have been for years, and give all credit to Doan's Kidney Pills for bringing about this result."

PAINES CELERY COMPOUND

Is Daily Saving Precious Lives After Pronounced Failures of Physicians

The months just passed of the present year have brought bereavement and dark clouds of sorrow to many homes in our land. Fathers, mothers, sisters, and brothers have been forever removed by the grim reaper, death. The large majority of such could have been saved had their friends given them Paine's Celery Compound, instead of the worthless medicines the sick ones are forced to swallow.

In many families it is too lavish obedience to medical dictation kept the true life saver from the sick and dying ones. Past a record of marvelous cures and victories wrought by Paine's Celery Compound were ignored by medical men; in a word, it was unprofessional in their estimation to introduce the life giving compound.

Ah! Remorse is now doing its quiet but effective work, and those most closely interested are suffering for their neglect.

Will, dear reader, allow some dear relative or friend to pass from life without making an effort to save the perishing one by Paine's Celery Compound? The virtues and powers of Dr. Phelps' prescription are wonderfully far reaching and mighty. Even though your friends have suffered long, and have come to that point where the physician is helpless to save, even then, there is a blessed hope, if Paine's Celery Compound is used.

The desperate cases cured in the past, and the number of precious lives saved, is the bright, the living proof that Paine's Celery Compound makes sick people well.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

In speaking of indigestion, Dr. Lewis says: "It is deplorable that so many hundreds of thousands of Americans suffer from indigestion. It means that the blood of the nation is becoming impure; for undigested food poisons the blood. Unless a method is devised for overcoming this malady, our race must deteriorate."

Many persons use soda tablets to neutralize fermenting food; this only makes a chemical receptacle out of the stomach, and injures its sensitive structures. Others feed on pepsin, which is better, but not sufficient, for it digests only albuminous foods.

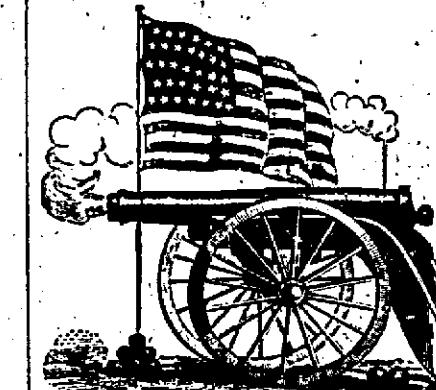

The preparation best fitted to relieve and absolutely cure indigestion is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. It contains every known digestant and digests every kind of food. Its use is a common sense method of treating all stomach troubles, and the results are always certain.

BRIDGES ARE CARRIED AWAY

Flouring Mill Dams Are Carried Away
—Crops Suffer in Sections, and Telephone and Telegraph Service Are Seriously Interfered With.

The Chicago and Northwestern railway was badly damaged by washouts west to Winona and east to Kendall. All trains were stalled for hours. The town of Norwalk was flooded and badly damaged.

The Viroqua branch road was washed out in many places and bridges were wrecked between Leon and Cashton. It is impossible to say how soon trains will reach Viroqua.

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul track was washed out in many places near West Salem and Oakdale. The dams at the city flouring mills here were carried away. The river was filled with debris, showing that much damage has been done further north. Crops in some sections suffered considerably. Telephone and telegraph lines also suffered.

Live Stock Washed Away.

Prairie du Chien, Wis., May 22.—The unusual rainfall of the lake week was supplemented yesterday by a heavy electrical storm, accompanied by a strong wind and hail. Cattle, sheep and hogs were washed away. Much damage was done to crops.

The Kickapoo river is raging, having risen six feet. Trains were abandoned owing to the heavy washouts. The Burlington tracks north of Ferryville are covered with rocks and dirt. Many bridges on both the Milwaukee and Burlington roads are washed away.

Damage at La Crosse.

La Crosse, Wis., May 22.—The storm of Tuesday night has caused the La Crosse river to overflow and much damage is being done. All the people residing on the river banks in North La Crosse are moving their household goods in boats. Many small buildings, sidewalks and fences are being carried away.

In the Root river valley along the Milwaukee road thousands of dollars' worth of property is destroyed. The Milwaukee tracks at Houston have been washed away and traffic is at a standstill. All trains on the Northwestern road are tied up. No train has arrived from the west since yesterday.

Heavy Rain in Missouri.
St. Joseph, Mo., May 22.—Rain has been falling almost steadily for twenty-four hours. The effect on all but ruined fruit crop is phenomenal. Strawberries are of extraordinary size and the market is glutted.

Rainfall in Kansas.
Topeka, Kas., May 22.—Heavy rain has fallen practically all over Kansas during the last twenty-four hours. Wheat was too far advanced to be benefited, but all other crops are in extra good condition.

IRISH BURLESQUE.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians has decided to make war on the burlesques of the Irish character on the stage, and incidental on the newspaper cartoons. The governing board of the organization has been considering the matter for a week or more and has concluded to begin a crusade. The president, John T. Keating, says: "We do not object to our people being shown on the stage, but we do object to those things they call 'Irish Comedians' which are dressed as no Irishman ever dressed and are painted up so that they look more like monkeys than men."

The objection is well taken, but not on the grounds simply of an offended nationality. Coarse buffoonery and vulgar clownishness should be rebuked by the amusement going public whether the make-up is of an Irishman, German or of any other character.

The Irish have no more reason to complain than have others. Not only are the peculiarities of foreigners presented in an exaggerated form on the stage, but the peculiarities of Americans. Various professions and callings are often caricatured both by the stage and press. Even the sanctity of the clerical cloth is made to arouse the laughter of the gamin in the gallery, while lawyers and school teachers and hotel keepers are deemed legitimate targets for sarcasm and ridicule. There is no nationality and no calling which escapes, although some are more frequently subjected to ridicule than others.

While the Irish have some cause for complaint, still their grievances are light compared with others, the Jew for instance. The fun poked at the Jew is inspired by a prejudice which always pictures him at his worst. The burlesque Irish character is not inspired by any such malice but is more inclined to result from a complimentary recognition of the natural wit and humor of that nationality. While the people laugh "at" the Jew, "at" the German; they laugh "with" the Irishman.

The Irish character has become almost an essential thing of comedy, not because of the desire to poke fun at the Irishman, but to enjoy the fun he pokes at them. That nationality has less cause of complaint, therefore, than any other. If a crusade is to be started, let it be broader, therefore, than any nationality and have for its purpose the elevating of the caricatures rather than an attempt to eliminate it. The one is possible, while the other isn't. The fun-making should be made more refined and of a cleaner nature, and an effort to make it so regardless of nationality, will be given support by the public in general, but little interest will be taken in any narrower and less practical reform.

DANDERINE Makes Hair Grow

PHOTOGRAPHED BY STEVENS' STUDIO, CHICAGO.

The powder puff may help to hide the ravages of time but it avails little to hide the ravages of disease. When the face is disfigured by eruptions, the treatment must go below the surface to the blood, which is corrupt and impure.

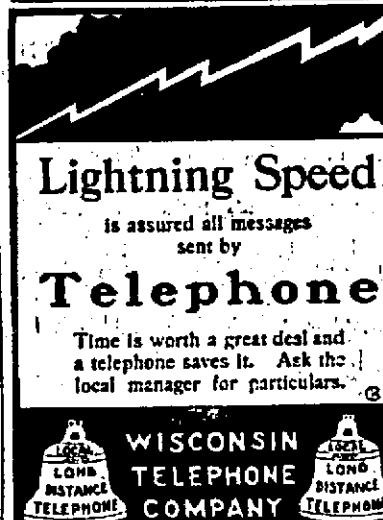

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures disfiguring eruptions which are caused by impure blood. It cures scrofulous sores, erysipelas, boils, pimples, eczema, salt-them and other eruptive diseases which impure blood breeds and feeds.

"I was troubled with eczema from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet," writes Mrs. Ella Quick of Cass City, Tuscola Co., Mich. "I could not walk at times nor wear my shoes. Thought there was no help for me—at least the doctor said there was none. I went to see friends at Christmas time and they advised the good Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and sent me Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Pellets and a bottle of 'All-Natural Salve,' which made a complete cure. It was slow, but sure. I was taking the medicine about eight months."

"I would say to all who read this: try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery before wasting time and money."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.

Dear Sirs: Two months ago I and my husband have been using your Danderine for several months. We all commenced using it about the same time, and we are seeing which of us can grow the longest hair. For a month we used it once a day, after that twice to three times a week. All of our hair is much thicker than it was, and is growing fully green and long. It seems the longer you use it the faster it grows. Are we using it to the very best advantage? Kindly answer at once.

ELEVEN HURT BY BOMB
THROWN INTO A CROWD

Miscreant Scatters Spectators Watching Fireworks Display at Morro Castle, Havana.

Havana, May 22.—While the people were watching the fireworks at Morro Castle, some one threw a bomb into a crowd of people, injuring eleven of them. Pieces of iron and nails were found in the wounds of those who were hit.

President Palma laid the foundation stone of an arch in commemoration of the establishment of the republic, and he was also present at the inauguration of the new university, for which the old Spanish military arsenal building is used. The building was prepared for this purpose by the military governor. It was formerly used for the manufacture of ammunition and cartridges.

In the senate Sangalli attacked the president for appointing the secretaries of state before the government had been handed over to him.

President Palma's inaugural message is not yet completed. He hopes, however, to be able to send it to congress when the latter meets next Friday. The keynote of the message will be the necessity of harmonizing the factions in the island and working in unison for the success of the republic. The message will be strong in its expression of gratitude to the United States, and of the desirability of the closest commercial relations. It will devote also considerable space to the necessity of diversifying and stimulating the industries of the island.

FAST EXPRESS TRAIN DITCHED

Eight Persons Are Severely Injured Near Mishawaka, Ind.

Mishawaka, Ind., May 22.—Spreading rails caused the ditching of the westbound Grand Trunk fast express train a short distance west of the station at this point.

The train was running sixty miles an hour when the wreck occurred, but although the baggage and mail cars and five coaches left the track and were tangled in a broken mass in the ditch, no one was killed. Many were bruised by the shock and cut by flying glass and eight were seriously hurt. The latter were: Joseph Roach, T. N. Minnear, H. E. Clifford, G. M. Urey, C. J. Clark, G. D. McDonald, G. W. Young, Miss Woodworth. Engineer John Harrington and Fireman E. D. Flinch stuck to their posts and were bruised in the wreck, but neither was incapacitated for duty. The track was torn up and blockaded by the wreck and traffic delayed for hours.

Accused of Killing Four.

Rock Falls, Ill., May 22.—Charles Hensel, who is now on trial for the murder of his wife in Princeton, is also charged with three additional murders. It is alleged that about seven years ago he killed his father-in-law by shooting him with a shotgun. A few months afterward his mother-in-law died.

Mr. Gabriel Well Pleased. Erwin Gabriel, of Evansville, a breeder of standard bred barred rock chickens and bronze turkeys, recently inserted a small classified ad. in the Farmers' Column of "The Weekly Gazette." That Mr. Gabriel received results, is evident from the following letter received at the Gazette office:

Shirtless Horses in Turkey.

Horses, mules and donkeys go loaded to market in Turkey, but the road is strown with grain leaking from the old sacks, and thousands of turkeys, which may be bought at 12 cents apiece, feed on the dropping grain.

ELEVEN HURT BY BOMB
THROWN INTO A CROWD

Miscreant Scatters Spectators Watching Fireworks Display at Morro Castle, Havana.

Havana, May 22.—While the people were watching the fireworks at Morro Castle, some one threw a bomb into a crowd of people, injuring eleven of them. Pieces of iron and nails were found in the wounds of those who were hit.

President Palma laid the foundation stone of an arch in commemoration of the establishment of the republic, and he was also present at the inauguration of the new university, for which the old Spanish military arsenal building is used. The building was prepared for this purpose by the military governor. It was formerly used for the manufacture of ammunition and cartridges.

In the senate Sangalli attacked the president for appointing the secretaries of state before the government had been handed over to him.

President Palma's inaugural message is not yet completed. He hopes, however, to be able to send it to congress when the latter meets next Friday. The keynote of the message will be the necessity of harmonizing the factions in the island and working in unison for the success of the republic. The message will be strong in its expression of gratitude to the United States, and of the desirability of the closest commercial relations. It will devote also considerable space to the necessity of diversifying and stimulating the industries of the island.
